

Thomas Siffling | Songs (2019)

This new project by Thomas Siffling will surprise and hopefully delight many. He has always had the dream and wish of singing and now, after top secret preparations, it is finally being realized.

Such a project needs courage and good preparation. With the support of his friend and promoter, the songwriter Antonio Beradi (Ben Zucher, Santiano, Söhne Mannheims, Culture Beat and many more), who has written songs for Thomas, the step has now been taken. At the end of November 2019 there was a first secret concert at the Mannheim jazz club Ella & Louis, which he leads. Nobody knew what would happen, except his new band. Not even his wife Nicole had any idea what would happen that evening.

In addition to his already well-known velvety and sensitive flugelhorn sound, the singing adds another level of expression to his musical feeling. The result is a wonderful mixture of emotions, joy and friendly cordiality. A new project, in which the musician Thomas Siffling can unfold and give himself again full of enthusiasm.
